Electoral principles - Mātāpono pōti

Key message

The electoral principles contained in section 4 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 are outlined below for candidate information. These principles must be taken into account in the conduct of any election or poll.

Principles

- (1) The principles that this Act is designed to implement are the following:
  - a. fair and effective representation for individuals and communities;
  - b. all qualified persons have a reasonable and equal opportunity to:
    - i. cast an informed vote;
    - ii. nominate 1 or more candidates;
    - iii. accept nomination as a candidate;
  - c. public confidence in, and public understanding of, local electoral processes through:
    - i. the provision of a regular election cycle;
    - ii. the provision of elections that are managed independently from the elected body;
    - iii. protection of the freedom of choice of voters and the secrecy of the vote;
    - iv. the provision of transparent electoral systems and voting methods and the adoption of procedures that produce certainty in electoral outcomes;
    - v. the provision of impartial mechanisms for resolving disputed elections and polls.
- (2) Local authorities, electoral officers, and other electoral officials must, in making decisions under this Act or any other enactment, take into account those principles specified in subsection (1) that are applicable (if any), so far as is practicable in the circumstances.
- (3) This section does not override any other provision in this Act or any other enactment.

Key message

---

All local government elections are required to be conducted strictly following legislation.

Legislation to be followed

---

- Local Electoral Act 2001;
- Local Electoral Regulations 2001;
- Local Government Act 2002;
- Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968.

Key message

---

Two electoral systems will be operating side by side for the 2022 elections, these being:

- Single Transferable Voting (STV)
- First Past the Post (FPP)

New Plymouth District Council is using the STV electoral system.

Taranaki Regional Council is using the FPP electoral system.

Understanding STV

For information on understanding how the STV electoral system works, refer to the Department of Internal Affairs website www.stv.govt.nz

A comprehensive explanation on the New Zealand method of counting STV votes is found in Schedule 1A, Local Electoral Regulations 2001.

Briefly, the STV electoral system consists of the following:

- voters receive a single (transferable) vote no matter whether there is one vacancy or several;
- voters rank the candidates in order of preference. "1" next to the name of the candidate most preferred, "2" next to the name of the candidate next preferred and so on;
- when votes are counted, all the first preferences are allocated first. To be elected, a candidate must reach a "quota" of votes, which is based on the number of vacancies and the number of valid votes;
- a candidate who reaches the quota is elected. If there is more than one vacancy and a candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion of each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference.

If, as a result, another candidate gets more votes than the quota, a proportion is transferred to third preferences, and so on;

- if insufficient candidates reach the quota after the first preferences are allocated and after any surplus votes are transferred, then the candidate who received the fewest votes is eliminated and each vote for that candidate is transferred to the voter's second preference. This process is repeated until enough candidates reach the quota to fill all the vacancies.

Understanding FPP

When you vote in an FPP election, you tick the name of the candidate(s) you most prefer, up to the number of vacancies.

When the votes are counted, the candidate(s) with the most votes is/are elected.

If there is one vacancy, you can vote for one candidate.

If there are three vacancies, you can vote for up to three candidates.

Candidate eligibility - Māraurau mō te kaitono pōti

Key message

A candidate for the New Plymouth District Council must be:

- a New Zealand citizen; and
- a parliamentary elector (anywhere in New Zealand) [Section 25, Local Electoral Act 2001]; and
- nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district.

Candidate restrictions

Restrictions on a candidate for the New Plymouth District Council are:

- a candidate may seek nomination for mayor, council and community board but if elected to the council and a community board, the council position is filled and the community board position is vacated (with the next highest polling candidate elected).
- a candidate may seek nomination for one council position only, either at large or for one ward.
- a candidate may seek nomination for mayor, council and community board but cannot also seek nomination for the Taranaki Regional Council i.e. a candidate may stand for New Plymouth District Council or the Taranaki Regional Council, but not both.
[Section 58 Local Electoral Act 2001].
- a candidate for mayor, council or community board (or candidate's spouse) cannot be a person concerned or interested in contracts over $25,000 with New Plymouth District Council. [Section 3(1) Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968]. This restriction may be waived, and it is recommended that advice from Audit New Zealand is sought.

- an employee of New Plymouth District Council who is elected as mayor or councillor must resign from their position as an employee of New Plymouth District Council before taking up their position. An employee will need to alert their manager of the intention to stand for office prior to any nomination being lodged. This restriction does not apply if an employee is elected to a community board.

[Section 41(5) Local Government Act 2002]

Candidate profile statement

Every candidate may provide the electoral officer with a candidate profile statement with their nomination. This statement must not exceed 150 words and can contain information about the candidate, their qualifications and skills applicable to the position for which they are standing and their policies/intentions if elected to office.

The candidate profile statement must be true and accurate and the electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in this statement.

The profile may include a recent passport-sized colour photograph.

The candidate profile statement and colour photo are required to be submitted in hardcopy, not electronically (except where information in another language is provided).

Candidate profile statements will be printed in plain text, without formatting ie:

- no bullet points;
- no bold or underlining;
- no italics;
- no quote marks.

These will be included with the voting document sent to each elector by the electoral officer, as well as being placed on the council's website.

Note that any spelling or grammatical errors will not be corrected, and candidates are therefore reminded to check their candidate profile statement prior to submitting their nomination.

The candidate profile statement may be in English or Māori or both (maximum 150 words in either language) or in any other language (not exceeding 150 words in total). Should all or part of a candidate profile statement be provided in a language other than English or Māori, it is required that this be provided in an electronic graphic file.

If required, the New Plymouth District Council will take candidate photos on request. For further information, or to arrange a time, contact Helen Begg on 06 759 6060.

If submitting an electronic graphic file containing other languages, the specifications (from the printer) are: all translations must be supplied as a single image. If there is more than one language translated, then these are to be all supplied together in a single image.

The image file to be supplied must meet the following criteria:

- PNG format;
- black and white;
- 600 dpi;
- maximum file size 400kB;
- the image being 1300 pixels high and 2000 pixels wide.

Candidates are also required to submit with their candidate profile statement the following information:

- ii. each position the candidate is seeking election for (e.g. council and community board) [Section 61(2)(cb) Local Electoral Act 2001].

Section 61 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 states the following:

- (1) Every candidate may, provide to the electoral officer a candidate profile statement that complies with subsection (2) and, if applicable, subsection (3).

  - c. must be confined to information concerning the candidate (including any group or organisation with which the candidate claims under section 55(4) to be affiliated, or their status as an independent candidate, and the candidate's contact details), and the candidate's policies and intentions if elected to office; and
  - ca. must state whether or not the candidate's principal place of residence, being the address in respect of which the candidate is registered as a parliamentary elector, is in the local government area for which the candidate seeks election (for example, either "My principal place of residence is in the Lambton Ward" or "My principal place of residence is not in the Lambton Ward"); and
  - cb. if the candidate is seeking election to any other positions in elections to which this Act applies (under section 7), must specify each position and state that the candidate is seeking to be elected to the positions; and
  - d. must comply with any prescribed requirements; and
  - e. may include a recent photograph of the candidate alone.
- (2A) The information required by subsection (2)(ca) and (cb) does not count for the purposes of the word limit under subsection (2)(a).
- (3) If a candidate profile statement is submitted in Māori and English, the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other language.
- (4) If the electoral officer is not satisfied that a candidate profile statement complies with subsection (2) or, if applicable, subsection (3), the electoral officer must, as soon as practicable, return the statement to the candidate and must—

- a. specify the concerns of the electoral officer and the reasons for those concerns; and
  - b. unless the candidate profile statement does not comply with subsection (2)(b), specify a period, which must not be less than 3 days from the date of return of the statement, during which the candidate may submit an amended candidate profile statement to the electoral officer.
- (5) A candidate is to be treated as having failed to provide a candidate profile statement, if subsection (4)(b) applies to the candidate and the candidate—
- a. fails to submit an amended candidate profile statement within the period specified in subsection (4)(b); or
  - b. submits an amended candidate profile statement that, in the opinion of the electoral officer, does not comply with subsection (2) or, if applicable, subsection (3).
- (6) An electoral officer -

    - i. any statement contained in or omitted from the candidate profile statement or the work of a translator prudently selected by the electoral officer; or
    - ii. the exercise of the powers and functions conferred on the electoral officer by this section.

Completion of nomination paper

Each nomination paper must have the consent of the candidate and be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. if a person wishes to stand for election to a specific ward, then that person must be nominated by two electors from the specific ward).

If a candidate is unable to sign the nomination paper (e.g. absent overseas), a letter of consent signed by the candidate is acceptable to attach to the nomination paper.

If a candidate is commonly known in the community by a slightly different name (e.g. Edward Smith is commonly known as Ted Smith) and has been known by this name for at least the last six months (to the satisfaction of the electoral officer), the commonly known name may appear on the voting document.

Once lodged, a nomination paper is available for public inspection at the electoral office. Candidate details not identified as confidential (e.g. mobile phone number) are made available to the media, placed on websites etc.

Affiliation

The nomination paper provides for a candidate to have an affiliation. An affiliation is described in section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 as 'an endorsement by any organisation or group (whether incorporated or unincorporated).'

Individual candidates, not part of an organisation or group, may wish to nominate their affiliation as 'Independent' or leave as blank (if left blank, nothing will show alongside the name on the voting document).

A candidate claiming a specific affiliation must supply with their nomination paper an authority to adopt the affiliation for the organisation or group concerned (i.e. letter of consent to use the affiliation from the organisation or group). This is a safety measure to avoid any illegal adoption of affiliations.

Affiliations that will not be accepted are ones:

- that might cause offence or;
- that are likely to confuse or mislead electors or;
- that are election slogans rather than the name of an organisation or group.

Should an affiliation be rejected for any of the above reasons, section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 sets out a process for the electoral officer and candidate to follow. Should agreement not be reached, no affiliation will appear on voting documents.

Affiliations are not able to be 'pre-registered' with the electoral officer, before a nomination is lodged.

A receipt will be issued to acknowledge that a nomination has been received. This receipt does not constitute an acknowledgment that the nomination paper is in order.

Once lodged, nomination papers are checked to ensure the candidate's name appears on the Parliamentary Roll and the nominators are two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. ward).

Each nomination paper lodged requires a deposit of $200 (inclusive of GST). This is refunded if the candidate polls greater than 25% of the final quota as determined at the last iteration (for STV elections), or greater than 25% of the lowest successful candidate (for FPP elections).

Payment of the nomination deposit can be made by electronic bank transfer, eftpos or cash. Evidence of an electronic bank transfer will be required to accompany the nomination.

Cheques are no longer accepted.

The lodgement of nomination papers should not be left to the last minute. Should a nomination paper be lodged late on the morning nominations close, and be incorrectly completed or ineligible nominators are provided, there may be insufficient time to correct the situation and the nomination paper could be invalidated.

Please do not leave lodging your nomination to the last minute.

Nominations can be returned by mail, but should these be received by the electoral officer or electoral official after the close of nominations, the nomination is invalid.

Cancellation of nomination

A candidate is able to withdraw their nomination up until the close of nominations (noon, Friday 12 August 2022). After the close of nominations, a candidate is not able to withdraw their nomination. [Section 69, Local Electoral Act 2001].

However, should a candidate become incapacitated after the close of nominations but before the close of voting, application may be made for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate.

'Incapacitated' means that a candidate, because they are suffering from a serious illness or has sustained a serious injury, would be unlikely to be capable of performing the functions and duties of office if elected to office. [Section 69(7) Local Electoral Act 2001].

An application for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate must be made to the electoral officer by submitting a prescribed form (available from the electoral office) together with a medical certificate.

People interested in standing for election are invited to attend a candidate information briefing to hear about the electoral process (the do's and don'ts), responsibilities and expectations if elected etc.

Briefing date

Saturday 16 July 2022, 3:00 - 5:00pm,
New Plymouth District Council, Council Chamber,
Civic Centre, 84 Liardet Street New Plymouth.

The candidate information briefing is being held to provide an opportunity for those members of the public who are considering standing for office to find out:

- how the organisation is structured
- the skills required, the role and responsibilities of elected representatives
- matters pertaining to the elections (eligibility, nominations, timetable, induction process and remuneration).

Registration to attend is not required.

Key message

Election campaigning can commence anytime and may continue up to and including election day. However there are certain constraints candidates need to be aware of.

Election signs are permitted on private property, provided the landowners permission is given.

Election signs are not permitted in or above public areas which includes, reserves, roads, footpaths, berms and state highways.

Election signs can be displayed for a maximum period of 12 months but must be removed seven days after the election (by Sunday 16 October 2022).

Campaigning

Election material cannot contain:

- any untrue statement defamatory of any candidate (e.g. under the Defamation Act 1992);
- an imitation voting document which has the names of the candidates with any direction or indication as to the candidate a person should vote for, or in any way contains such direction or indication likely to influence the voter.

Voting documents should not be collected from electors by candidates or their assistants. Each elector should post or deliver their own voting document to the electoral officer. This also applies to rest homes and hospitals - voting documents should not be collected from elderly or infirm electors by candidates or their assistants.

Use of council resources

Candidates are not permitted to use council resources for campaigning purposes. Council resources include, but are not limited to, the council's logo, crest or branding, website, Facebook page, Twitter account, any other forms of social media, tablets, computers, ipads, email, mobile phones, faxes, stationery, photocopiers, printers, stamps, cars, meeting rooms and venues (except those available for public hire). This applies to either sitting members, council staff or other candidates in any context that could reasonably be construed as campaigning for elections.

Social media

Social media can be a useful tool for candidates for campaigning purposes and electioneering. Candidates should however be aware of any council social media guidelines for candidates and should comply with these at all times.

Council's social media channels are council resources and must remain politically neutral at all times. Council will promote elections and the importance of voting but will not associate these posts with any candidates.

Council social media accounts will not follow any candidates. This may result in your account being unfollowed.

Council's social media accounts are not permitted to be used as a communications channel by anyone (candidates or members of the public) for promotion, electioneering or campaigning. This also applies to all social media accounts owned by council-controlled organisations.

You may not rate, review, check-in or tag the council's social media channels in your own posts or comments.

Candidates cannot reply to the council's social media posts. Any posts that do this will be removed immediately.

Candidates may share the council's posts to their private social media channel(s) and comment. It will then be their responsibility to manage the discussion and activity on their personal social media channels.

Council's social media accounts are constantly monitored, and any campaign related or electioneering content, (including posts related to nominations and candidacy), will be removed immediately.

Candidates should be aware that election advertising, using any media, including on social media, must identify the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced and the contact details of the person under whose authority they have been produced [Section 113, Local Electoral Act 2001]. This may be details of the candidate or their agent, and may be included on a profile picture, or within the bio section of a page.

For example: 'All content/images contained on this social media page/channel are authorised by [name], [contact details]'.

Offences

Candidates should be aware that it is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000, if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising that elector as to how they should vote. Candidates and their assistants should be mindful of this particularly if campaigning occurs in rest homes or hospitals.

Election offences are detailed for your information on page 39 of this handbook. Please refer to them for your own protection.

Election advertising

Election advertising, using any media, must show an authorisation statement. This statement must include:

- the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced; and
- the contact details of the person whose authority they have been produced. [Section 113, Local Electoral Act].

This includes election advertising on signs, in newspapers, on flyers and posters, on a vehicle and on election websites.

Relevant criteria as contained in the Local Electoral Act 2001 are:

113 Advertisements for candidates

    - i. the true name and contact details of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published; and*
    - ii. the true name of the organisation or body that has endorsed the publication of the advertisement and the address of the place of business of that organisation or body.
- (5) This section does not restrict the publication of any news or comments relating to an election in a newspaper or other periodical, or on the Internet, or in any other medium of electronic communication accessible by the public, or in a radio or television broadcast made by a broadcaster within the meaning of section 2 of the Broadcasting Act 1989.
- (6) A person who willfully contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

* Sections 113 (2)(b), (4)(b)(i) and (7) were amended by the Local Electoral (Advertising) Amendment Act 2022. Different types of contact details are now permissible in electoral advertising (previously only physical address).

Key message

Candidates need to be aware to keep a record of all donations received and expenses incurred in their election campaign. Election expenditure limits will apply, these depending on the population size of the area of the election the candidate is standing for.

Every candidate must, by law, complete an Electoral Donations and Expenses Return declaring all donations and expenses and forwarded to the electoral office by Friday 9 December 2022.

Electoral expenses

Candidates should be aware that candidate campaign expenditure limits are applicable. This means a limit has been placed on how much a candidate may spend on their campaign, and this includes donations and joint campaigning. The maximum amount spent must not exceed the limits set out below where the election covers a population range as detailed:

Local government area population	Expenditure limit
up to 4,999	$3,500
5,000-9,999	$7,000
10,000-19,999	$14,000
20,000-39,999	$20,000
40,000-59,999	$30,000
60,000-79,999	$40,000
80,000-99,999	$50,000
100,000-149,999	$55,000
150,000-249,999	$60,000
250,000 -1,000,000	$70,000
1,000,000 or more	$100,000*

* Plus 50 cents for each elector

[NOTE: Expenditure limits are inclusive of GST].

Electoral expenses are defined as relating to electoral activity which can comprise advertising, broadcasting or communicating material to the public (electronically or otherwise).

These electoral expenses are generally funded by the candidate and are not reimbursable from the organisation the candidate is standing for.

If a candidate is standing for more than one position (e.g. mayor and council) then the higher limit applies (not both combined).

The population distribution for New Plymouth District Council (population estimates as at November 2021) is:

Ward	Population	Limit
Kaitake-Ngāmotu General	54,318	$30,000
Kōhanga Moa General	9,528	$7,000
North General	8,934	$7,000
Te Purutanga Mauri Pūmanawa Māori	6,885	$7,000
At large	79,665	$40,000

source: Statistics New Zealand as at November 2021

Community Board	Population	Limit
Clifton	2,772	$3,500
Inglewood	10,772	$14,000
Kaitake	5,094	$7,000
Puketapu-Bell Block	6,858	$7,000
Waitara	8,550	$7,000
	34,046

source: Statistics New Zealand as at November 2021

The period for which campaign expenditure limits apply is three months before election day (i.e. 8 July 2022 to 8 October 2022). However legislation further specifies that all expenses incurred before the three month period for campaign expenditure and used during the three month period, must be fairly apportioned and included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Where an electoral expense relates to more than one candidate, an equitable apportionment between candidates is required.

Nomination deposits, voluntary labour and election sign framework are not electoral expenses and therefore should not be included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Electoral donations

a. Candidate donations

A candidate donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made for use in the candidate's campaign.

Candidate donations, and contributions to donations, of more than $1,500 (inc GST) are required to be declared in the candidate return of donations and expenses. A series of donations made by one person that adds up to more than $1,500 must also be declared.

A candidate donation includes:

- where a candidate is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value greater than $300;
- where a candidate is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $300, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of those goods and services is a donation;
- where a candidate sells over-valued goods or services the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation, for example a fundraising auction or dinner.

The following are not deemed a donation:

- volunteer labour;
- goods or services provided free of charge to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less; or

- money provided by the candidate for their own campaign.

If a person or organisation gives or pays for goods or services that would otherwise be candidate election expenses, the reasonable market value of those items, whatever their value, should be recorded as an election expense. If the reasonable market value of the items exceeds $300 it should also be recorded as a donation.

b. Donations made up of contributions

Donations to candidates can be made up of pooled funds contributed by more than one person (referred to as donations funded from contributions). These types of donations include, for example, campaign donations made through a trust, or where there is a fundraising collection for a candidate's campaign.

The total proceeds of a collection are treated as a donation. The person who collects the money will normally be the donor. The individuals who contribute to the collection are contributors.

If a candidate donation, other than an anonymous donation, is made up of contributions, the transmitter or donor must tell the candidate:

- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of individual contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of individual contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

If the candidate knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that the donor has failed to supply information about contributions, the whole donation must be returned to the donor.

c. Transmitted donations

A donation can be made either directly by the donor to the candidate or indirectly by a transmitter who transmits a donation to the candidate on someone else's behalf, for example via a lawyer's trust fund. Any person who receives a candidate donation on the candidate's behalf must transmit it to the candidate within 10 working days.

When transmitting a donation, the transmitter must tell the candidate:

- that the donation is being transmitted on behalf of a donor;
- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

Where a transmitter does not disclose the name and address of the donor, the donation must be treated as an anonymous donation.

d. Anonymous donations

Candidates are not permitted to retain anonymous donations exceeding $1,500. An anonymous donation is a donation made in such a way that the candidate who receives the donation does not know the identity of the donor and could not, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to know the identity of the donor.

If a candidate receives an anonymous donation greater than $1,500, they may retain $1,500 of that donation. The balance of the donation must, within 20 working days of receipt, be paid to the electoral officer for payment into the general fund of the local authority.

Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses

A Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses form (a copy of this is located at the rear of this handbook) is required to be supplied to the electoral officer within 55 days after the official declaration (by 9 December 2022). This can be supplied to the electoral officer within 76 days after the official declaration if a candidate is overseas when successful candidates are declared elected.

The Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses must set out:

- the details of every electoral donation received by the candidate that, either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same donor for use in the same campaign, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value; and
- the details in respect of every anonymous electoral donation received by the candidate that exceeds $1,500; and
- details of the candidate's electoral expenses.

The details of every electoral donation are:

- the name of the donor; and
- the address of the donor; and
- the amount of the donation or in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and
- the date the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date that each donation was received.

The details of every anonymous donation exceeding $1,500 are:

- the date the donation was received; and
- the amount of the donation; and
- the amount paid to the electoral officer and the date the payment was made.

With respect to electoral expenses, the return must set out separately the name and description of every person or body of persons to whom or which any sum was paid, and the reason for which it was paid. Sums paid in excess of $200 (GST inclusive) must be vouched by an invoice or a bill and a receipt.

Candidates are advised to retain all invoices and receipts relating to electoral expenses should these be required in the event of a challenge. They should not be submitted with the return.

Once the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses forms have been received by the electoral officer they become public documents and are to be kept for a public inspection period of seven years. During this period, the returns:

- are placed on council's website;
- can be inspected by any person;
- copies can be made available if requested.

This is a requirement under section 112F of the Local Electoral Act 2001.

Key message

---

All elected members of New Plymouth District Council are required to comply with the duties and obligations of the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015.

Health and Safety at Work Act 2015

Under the legislation an officer is someone who holds a position which allows them to exercise significant influence over the whole of council. At New Plymouth District Council, elected members and the chief executive (and possibly others) are 'Officers'. The boards of council-controlled organisations and their chief executives are also officers.

As a PCBU (persons conducting a business or undertaking), council holds the primary duty to ensure people's safety. An officer's responsibility is to exercise due diligence to ensure that council complies with its duties and obligations under the Health and Safety at Work Act – similar to the responsibility councillors and local boards have to exercise due diligence over council's financial matters.

An officer's duty is important because leadership contributes to council's safety culture, and elected members need to have an understanding of what is required to manage council's risks.

Officers can rely on information provided to them by staff and experts so long as that reliance is reasonable. However, elected members and the chief executive must test and assess the advice provided to them to ensure they are confident their decisions have sufficiently considered health and safety factors. Officers must demonstrate that they have carefully considered health and safety.

There are six key aspects of officer due diligence. The legislation requires officers take reasonable steps to:

- (1) Acquire and keep up to date with health and safety knowledge and health and safety matters for council.
- (2) Understand council's operations and the associated hazards and risks.
- (3) Ensure council has appropriate resourcing and processes to eliminate or minimise risks to health and safety.
- (4) Ensure council has appropriate processes for receiving and considering information regarding incidents, hazards, and risks and for responding in a timely way to that information.
- (5) Ensure council has, and implements, processes for complying with any duty or obligation.
- (6) Verify the provision and use of resources and processes through reviews and audits.

Liability

Whilst officers do not have the same primary duty as the PCBU to directly ensure health and safety they must exercise due diligence to ensure that the PCBU is meeting its duties.

Elected members acting in their capacity as elected members (as distinguished from elected members acting in a governance role for another entity) are excluded from liability for the most serious offences under the new Act. However they may still be liable under some of the other requirements in the legislation – for example in some circumstances WorkSafe NZ could still serve an improvement notice on them.

Legislation

New Plymouth District Council is a body corporate constituted under the Local Government Act 2002.

The council gets its authority from the various laws made by Parliament. The principal Acts under which the council operates are the Local Government Acts 1974 and 2002; the Local Government (Rating) Act 2002; the Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968; the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987; the Local Electoral Act 2001; the Building Act 2004; the Resource Management Act 1991; the Transit New Zealand Act 1989; the Health Act 1956 and various other Acts of Parliament, including Regulations made under those Acts.

The Local Government Act 2002 reflects a clear view that local authorities that are effective, responsible and accountable to the communities they represent are a fundamental part of our system of democratic governance, rather than merely a collection of assets and services.

The Act provides greater scope for communities to make their own choices about what local authorities do and the way they do these things. Local authorities have full capacity to undertake any act that promotes the purpose of local government, subject to other legislation.

The purpose of local government is set out in section 10 as follows:

- a. to enable democratic local decision-making and action by, and on behalf of, communities; and
- b. to promote the social, economic, environmental, and cultural well-being of communities in the present and for the future.

Section 11 states that the role of a local authority is to:

- a. give effect, in relation to its district or region, to the purpose of local government stated in section 10; and
- b. perform the duties, and exercise the rights, conferred on it by or under this Act and any other enactment.

These statements envelop a number of related ideas that reflect the actual job of the council and therefore its elected members:

Democracy. Ensuring opportunities for participation in decision-making processes, within the overall framework of representative democracy.

Effectiveness. Decision-making processes are intended to ensure that representatives are well informed about the preferences of electors, and electors are well informed about the actions of their representatives (and the likely consequences of those actions).

Local decision-making and accountability. A framework for decision-making that reflects the need to provide effective means for local accountability.

Community well-being. Local government is given a broad mandate to promote community well-being, rather than simply being empowered to undertake particular tasks or activities. The four aspects of well-being are social, economic, environmental and cultural.

Mayor and Councillors

The mayor and councillors, acting as the council, are responsible for governance, including:

- the development and adoption of council policy
- monitoring the performance of the council against its stated objectives and policies
- prudent stewardship of council resources
- employment of the chief executive.

The mayor and councillors are also responsible for representing the interests of the residents and ratepayers of the district.

Unless otherwise provided in the Local Government Act 2002 or in the council's standing orders, the council can only act by majority decisions at meetings. Any individual member (including the mayor) has no authority to act on behalf of the council unless provided for by statute or the council has expressly delegated such authority.

The mayor and councillors are expected to attend the meetings of the council, as well as the committees and subcommittees, working parties, and external organisations to which they are appointed.

The council must adopt a code of conduct for its members. By taking the oath of office, the mayor and every councillor agrees to comply with the code of conduct.

The mayor

The mayor is elected by the district as a whole and, as one of the elected members, shares the same responsibilities as other members of the council. The mayor also has the following roles:

- presiding at council meetings including ensuring the orderly conduct of business during meetings (as determined by standing orders);
- advocating on behalf of the community involving the promotion of the community and representation of its interests. Such advocacy will be most effective where it is carried out with the knowledge and support of the council;
- spokesperson for the council;
- ceremonial head of the council;
- providing leadership and feedback to other elected members on teamwork and chairing of committees;
- fulfilling the responsibilities of a Justice of the Peace (while the mayor holds office).

The mayor is a member of every council committee.

Deputy mayor

The deputy mayor is usually appointed by the mayor. Where the mayor chooses not to appoint a deputy they must be elected by the members of the council at the first meeting of the council. The deputy mayor exercises the same roles as other elected members, and if the mayor is absent or incapacitated, the deputy mayor must perform all of the responsibilities and duties, and may exercise the powers, of the mayor (as summarised above). The deputy mayor may be removed from office by resolution of the council.

Committee chairpersons

The mayor may create one or more committees (this includes subcommittees) of the council and usually appoints the chairperson of each. The committee chairperson presides over all meetings of the committee, ensuring that the committee acts within the powers delegated by council. Committee chairpersons may be called on to act as official spokespersons on issues within the terms of reference for their committees. Chairpersons may be removed from office by resolution of council. Deputy chairpersons of committees may also be appointed. A deputy chairperson fulfills the functions of the chair when the chairperson is absent.

Community boards

Community boards provide a level of representation below district councils. The role of each community board includes:

- representing the interests of its community;
- considering and reporting on matters referred to it by the council, of interest or concern;
- maintaining an overview of council services to the community;
- preparing an annual submission to the council for its annual plan;
- communicating with community organisations and special interest groups;
- undertaking any other responsibilities that are delegated to it by the council.

Community boards will at their first meetings elect chairpersons and deputies.

Workloads of an elected member

The time commitments vary depending on the position you are elected to.

The present mayor finds the role a full time commitment. Councillors' time per week will depend on the number of responsibilities they have in their role. For example the present council meets on a six weekly meeting cycle. There is one council meeting and at least three committee meetings in each cycle. Other ad hoc meetings are held during each meeting cycle.

Council and committee meetings in the 2019-2022 term have been held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays commencing at 1:00pm.

In addition to meetings, a number of workshops are held throughout the year, during the day, mainly dealing with the annual budget and matters going out for public consultation.

Community board members attend one meeting every six weeks on days selected by the individual boards. They often attend community board workshops or council meetings.

As well as attending meetings, both councillors and community board members will spend time on consultation with the community to enable them to fulfil their decision-making roles. Time must also be spent in preparing for meetings.

In addition to the meeting cycle, there is an extensive induction programme run following the election. This programme introduces new councillors and community board members to the role of elected members and serves to refresh those members who are re-elected to the council.

While the above is given as a guideline of what has taken place in the past, the governance structure is largely determined by the incoming council in conjunction with the chief executive.

Governance structure

The governance structure adopted by the present council is:

Local Authorities (Members' Interest) Act

The Local Authorities (Members' Interest) Act 1968 fulfils two underlying purposes:

- it prevents members from using their position to obtain preferential treatment from the authority of which they are a member in contracting situations; and
- it ensures that members are not affected by personal financial motives when they participate in authority matters.

There is a rule of law, known as the rule against bias, which says that "no one may be judge of their own cause". The object of this rule is to ensure that people who exercise power from positions of authority, carry out their duties free from bias. The Act is a statutory application of this rule to particular circumstances, i.e. pecuniary interests, and:

- controls the making of contracts between members and their authority; and
- prevents members from participating in authority matters in which they have a pecuniary interest.

A member is disqualified from office who is "concerned or interested" in contracts with their authority under which the total payments made, or to be made, by or on behalf of the authority exceed $25,000 in any financial year. The $25,000 limit is GST inclusive. This restriction is waived if prior approval is obtained from the office of the controller and auditor-general.

Disqualification means that a person cannot:

- be elected or appointed to:
  - i. the authority; and/or
  - ii. any committee of the authority; or
- hold office as a member of the authority or any committee.

It is also an offence under the Act for a person to act as a member of an authority, or a committee of the authority, while disqualified. A disqualification lasts until the next general election or opportunity for appointment to the authority.

The restriction on contracting applies to the member, not the authority. The Act does not affect the authority's power to enter into contracts. The fact that a contract has been let does not invalidate the contract.

Management structure - Te anga o te rōpū whakahaere

Management

The council (the mayor and 14 councillors) is responsible for employing the chief executive and its principal relationship is with the chief executive. The chief executive employs all other council officers.

The chief executive is responsible for establishing and maintaining the operational structure of the council. An Executive Leadership Team is appointed to manage group functions.

Officers provide the council with policy advice and implement policies under the direction of the chief executive. They decide the operational approach needed to implement the council's policies and to achieve the results the council wants.

Councillors cannot direct council staff.
